

CHAPTER 236.

CHAP. 237.

An act to allow Jesse Scott, late Sheriff of Talbot county, further time to complete his collections. Passed March 7, 1843

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Time allowed.
That Jesse Scott, late Sheriff of Talbot county, and his deputies, or any agent appointed by him, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to collect and receive all and every balance or amount of officer's fees, fines and forfeitures, and all other sums that may be due and owing to the said Scott as Sheriff as aforesaid, or to his deputies, in the same manner, and to the same extent as if the term of office of said Scott, as Sheriff as aforesaid had not expired; provided, that if any person against whom there is a claim by said Scott as Sheriff as aforesaid, or either of his deputies, shall make affidavit before a justice of the peace of said county that the same has been paid at any previous time to any person authorized to receive the same, it shall prevent the said Scott and his deputies from collecting the said claim, in the manner prescribed by law for collecting such claims; and provided also, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to affect the estate of a deceased person, except to authorize said Scott, or his deputies, to receive any claim or balance due by a deceased person in the same manner that claims against deceased persons are now recovered by law; and provided also, that this act shall continue in force for only one year from its passage. Provisoes.

CHAPTER 237.

An act to repeal the ninth and twelfth sections of the act of seventeen hundred and fifteen, chapter forty-eight. Passed March 4, 1843.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Repealed.
That the ninth and twelfth sections of the act of seventeen hundred and fifteen, chapter forty-eight, be and the same are hereby repealed.