CHAPTER 250.

An act to incorporate the Port Deposit Academy in Cecil county. Passed March 8, 1843.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Cornelius Smith, Elijah Reynolds, David Gilmore, John Vanemar, B. Yarnell, Joseph W. Abrahams and John Archer, of Cecil county, the present trustees of said academy and their successors, be and they are hereby created a corporation and body politic, by the name and style of the Port Deposit Academy, and by that name shall have succession and be able and capable in law to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, in any court of law or equity, to purchase, receive and hold estate in fee simple, less estate, also personal property not exceeding in all five thousand dollars clear value, and the same to convey and dispose of, as to them or a majority of them, may seem most conducive to the interest of said academy, to make and use a common seal, and the same to change and alter at pleasure, and to ordain and establish such bye-laws and regulations not contrary to law, as shall be necessary or convenient for the management of said corporation. Incorporated.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That at all times hereafter when any vacancy or vacancies shall happen in the said community of trustees, by death, resignation, removal to a greater distance than ten miles from the academy, or refusal or wilful neglect, of any one or more to act or to attend the meeting of the board for the space of one year, the remaining trustees or a majority of them, shall as early as convenient, proceed to elect by ballot, other capable person or persons to supply such vacancy or vacancies, and in like manner shall all future vacancies be supplied by said trustees and their successors or a majority of them, so as to perpetuate the number of seven persons as trustees of the said academy forever; provided, no person shall be elected or continue to be a trustee who may reside at the time more than ten miles from said academy. Trustees to elect, &c. Proviso.
