

CHAP. 251. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and successors, or a majority of them, shall have full power from time to time to appoint teachers and assistant teachers, for instructing the pupils of said academy in such sciences and branches of education as they may think proper and suitable to be taught therein, and also to delegate to said teachers and assistant teachers such authority as they may deem expedient for the good government and discipline of said academy, and likewise to remove at their pleasure said teachers and assistant teachers, and also to make such regulations not contrary to law, for the visitation and examination of said academy and the students thereof, as shall best promote the important objects of the institution; provided, there shall be at least two public examinations in each and every year.

Proviso.

Trustees to elect a President from among themselves.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint from amongst themselves a president, treasurer and secretary, and to prescribe their duties, and also to appoint such of their own body, not less than three, as they may think proper, a committee, whose duty it shall be to attend more particularly to the interest of the academy; to visit it occasionally, to examine into the progress of the pupils; to see that the rules and regulations are properly enforced, and the discipline of the school maintained.

Issues forbid.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed as to authorize the said corporation to issue any note, token, device or other evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

Right reserved.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall enure for thirty years, and that the legislature reserves to itself the right to change, alter or annul this act of incorporation at pleasure.

CHAPTER 251.

Passed March 9, 1848. An act to extend the charters of the several Banks therein mentioned.

Charters extended to the 1st of Jan'y 1855.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the charters of the Bank of Westminster, the Farmer's and Mechanic's of Frederick county, the Frederick county Bank, and the Cumberland Bank of Allegany, and the Hager's town Bank, be and they are hereby extended and continued in force until the first day of Janua-