

CHAP. 260. advantage and happiness of the students thereof, and it shall be the duty of the said board of trustees, to appoint a faculty consisting of a president, vice president and such professors, tutors and assistants as may be necessary, to which faculty shall be committed the execution of all the ordinances of the board pertaining to the education and discipline of the students, and the said faculty shall have full power and authority vested in them for the maintainance of order and good government in the institution, and they shall be required to use every suitable means to implant and mature in the minds of the students the principles of virtue, and in their conduct the habits of industry and temperance.

Faculty to make annual report.

SEC. 5. *And be it enacted, That the president of the faculty shall be ex-officio as a member of the board of trustees and vice president thereof, it shall be the duty of the faculty to make an annual report of the number of students under their care, of their advancement in study, and of their general deportment, and to recommend to the consideration of the board of trustees such fundamental or other regulations for the government of the college as shall appear to them to be conducive to the best interest thereof; it shall also be their duty to hold commencements from time to time at the discretion of the board of trustees, and to admit to such degree and academic honors as are usually conferred in other colleges, such persons as are recommended by the board of trustees after proper examination.

Issues forbid.

SEC. 6. *And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as to authorize this corporation to issue any device, token, note, certificate or other evidence of debt to be used as a currency.

Right reserved.

SEC. 7. *And be it enacted, That the right is hereby expressly reserved to the general assembly of Maryland at its pleasure to alter or repeal this act of incorporation.

---

CHAPTER 260.

Passed March 4, 1843.

An act supplementary to an act entitled, An act for the more speedy completion of the Consolidated Lotteries, and the augmentation of the State's Revenue from that source.

Commissioners may issue licenses.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in addition to the licenses to sell lottery tickets authorized by the act to which this is a supplement, the commissioners of lotteries shall have power to issue to the per-