CHAPTER 261.

An act to incorporate the Trustees of New Design School, in Cecil County. Passed March 8, 1843

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Robert McMaster, David Baird, Theodore H. Knight, David Archibald and George W. Kidd, and their successors, be and they are hereby incorporated, and shall have succession by the name of The Trustees of the New Design School, and by that name may sue and be sued, and have a corporate seal, which they may break, alter and change at pleasure, may hold property to an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars and dispose of the same; may make bye-laws, not contrary to the laws of this State, or of the United States, and to do all other acts necessary for the regulation, prosperity and the promotion of education in said school. Incorporation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall hold till successors be elected, and that every free white male citizen residing within three miles of the school-house of said corporation, who may have contributed in any way to the establishment or support of said school, shall have a vote in the election of trustees, and that an annual election for five trustees shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed by the bye-laws, and upon omission to elect, the trustees shall hold till successors be elected. Trustees, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the property now belonging to what is called the New Design School, in Cecil county, shall be vested in the corporation by this act. Property invested in corporation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act be construed so as to authorize the said corporation to issue any note, token, device, scrip or other evidence of debt to be used as currency. Issues forbid.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act of incorporation shall enure for thirty years from its passage, and that the legislature reserves to itself the right to alter or annul this act of incorporation at pleasure. To enure for 30 years.
