

all and singular the duties which under existing laws are now CHAP. 275. performed by the examiner general of the eastern shore.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all laws and regulations Repealed. inconsistent with the provisions of the act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

---

CHAPTER 274.

An act to allow David G. Odell, former Sheriff and Collector of Worcester county, further time to complete his collections. Passed March 10, 1843.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Time allowed. That the time for the collection of officer's fees that may be due to David G. Odell, as former Sheriff of Worcester county, be and the same is hereby extended to the first day of May 1844, and that within that time the said David G. Odell and his deputies, shall have as full power and authority to collect said dues as if his time of office had not expired; provided, that the said David G. Odell shall in every case before he proceed to execute for any of said fees or levy, make out a fair account thereof with an affidavit annexed, that they are due, and that neither he nor any person for him, hath received any part or security for the same. Proviso.

---

CHAPTER 275.

An act to authorize The Franklin Savings Institution of Baltimore, to settle up its affairs. Passed March 10, 1843.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joshua B. Sumalt, John Lockerd, James Dixon, George G. McMillon, John F. Davis, George Harman, George C. Addison, Caleb Whitmore, Solomon H. Phillips, George Rea and others, who are now members of the Franklin Savings Institution of Baltimore, shall be and they are hereby created and made a corporation and body politic for the period of three years and no longer, by the name and style of The Franklin Savings Institution of Baltimore, and by that name shall be capable for the period of three years from the passage of this act by law, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, Corporate powers.