

CHAP. 290. of this State, the court shall entertain said appeal although the transcript or certified copy of the record shall not have been transmitted within the time required by law, if it shall appear to the said Court of Appeals that such delay in transmitting of the transcript of the record was occasioned by the neglect or omission of the register or clerk, and without default of the party.

CHAPTER 289.

Passed March 7, 1843. An act supplementary to an act entitled, An act to limit the number of constables in the several Election Districts in Anne Arundel County, and to increase their fees.

Commissioners to appoint as many as necessary. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it may be lawful for the commissioners of Anne Arundel county, to appoint as many suitable persons as constables, in each election district of said county, as they may in their discretion deem necessary.

Bond $800. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the bonds of all constables appointed for Anne Arundel county, shall be taken in the penalty of eight hundred dollars, instead of the sum now required by law.

CHAPTER 290.

Passed March 10, 1843. An act to incorporate the Maryland State Bible Society.

Incorporated. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John G. Morris, Galloway Cheston, William L. Gill, John Kelso, R. P. Archer, Richard Potts, Ezra Heller, B. S. Pigman, John Ridout, Otho Magruder, W. H. Tuck, T. H. Wilkinson, J. G. Chapman, James Thomas, F. Henderson, J. B. Eccleston, P. B. Hoffer, N. G. Singleton, William Tatem, A. C. Thompson, George Handy, John S. Martin, W. Vanbibber, R. B. Magruder, J. P. K. Henshaw, J. G. Hamner, R. J. Breckinridge, J. C. Backus, H. J. Keppler, G. D. Purviance, Isaac P. Cook, J. Halsbert, E. Heiner, H. V. D. Johns, N. Head, C. P.