

CHAP. 32. erset county, is the owner of sundry slaves, to which he acquired title by virtue of his marriage with Sarah B. Upshur of Northampton county, Virginia, and by virtue of sundry deeds of gift from her father, John Upshur, senior, of Northampton county aforesaid, as also by the last will and testament of the said John Upshur; and whereas the said John Upshur devised to his said daughter, certain real estate in Accomac and Northampton counties, Virginia; and whereas the said William W. Handy is also the owner of certain real estate in Somerset county aforesaid, and is desirous to employ the said slaves during some portions of the year on his said wife's real estate in Accomac and Northampton counties aforesaid—therefore,

May employ or remove said slaves.

Proviso.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the said William W. Handy of Somerset county aforesaid, to employ any of the said slaves so required as aforesaid, either in the said counties of Accomac, Northampton or Somerset, and to remove them or any of them from one to the other of said counties at his pleasure; provided nevertheless, that the said William W. Handy shall first have complied with the provisions of the act of Assembly, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty three, chapter eighty seven, and the several supplements thereto, requiring the payment of a tax for the use of the colonization society, and the filing of a list of said slave or slaves, with the clerk of Somerset county court.

CHAPTER 32.

Passed Jan. 23, 1843. An act to allow John M. Carlton, late sheriff and collector of fees of Allegany county, further time to complete his collections.

Time extended.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John M. Carlton late sheriff and collector of fees of Allegany county by himself or any person or persons by him appointed for this purpose, be, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to collect until the last day of December, eighteen hundred and forty-four, all sums and balances due him, as sheriff and collector of fees of Allegany county, in the same manner which the said John M. Carlton late sheriff and collector of fees of Allegany county could or might have done within the time limited by law, anything to the contrary notwithstanding.