

Sec.

Chap. Sec.

The levy of five cents in the $100 imposed by act of 1842, chapter 328, by the commissioners of, made valid, &c. 228

BALTIMORE COUNTY COURT—Authorized anterior to each term of a county business if, in the opinion of the judges, the state of the city business require it, to order to be summoned from the city a jury and to assign one of the judges to try cases on the city docket, during the sitting of the court for county business, &c.

BALTIMORE & OHIO RAIL ROAD COMPANY—
See Internal Improvement Companies.

BALTIMORE MURRAY INSTITUTE—Incorporated. 2

BANKS—See Washington County Bank; Farmer's and Merchant's Bank of Baltimore; Chesapeake; Citizen's Bank of Baltimore; Farmer's and Planter's Bank of Baltimore; Planter's Bank of P. G. County.

The legislature reserves the right to repeal the charters of all banks in this state which shall refuse to redeem their notes in specie, &c. 76 6

The charters of certain banks therein mentioned, extended, &c. 251 1

To pay treasurer 20 cts. on every hundred dollars, to be applied in augmentation of free school fund, &c. " 2

On refusal to pay specie on demand, charters to be forfeited, &c. " 3

Not to offer any note, &c. less than $5, &c. " 3

Real estate of, subject to taxation, &c. " 5

The liabilities of, created by existing acts, not to be imposed, &c. " 6

To furnish treasurer once every year with statements of capital stock, debts, &c. " 7

This act to be taken as a part of every separate charter, &c. " 8

Inconsistent acts repealed. " 9

BARKDOLL, JONATHAN—Authorized to close a certain road, &c. 109

BARRELL, SAMUEL B. & ROGER C. WEIGHTMAN.—See Porter, John.

BARTHOLOW, THOMAS AND OTHERS—Money paid for forfeited recognizance to be refunded to, by the late sheriff of Carroll county, &c. 21

1
2