

	Sec.	Chap.
of any property real or of slaves by direct bequest, &c. in her own name if the same does not come from her husband after coverture, &c.	293	1
When any woman possessed of property in slaves shall marry, her property therein not responsible for her husbands debts, &c.	"	2
Slaves by gift, &c. during coverture shall enure to the wife, &c.	"	3
Control of slaves to remain in the husband, &c. suits to recover the property of such slaves to be brought in joint names of the husband and wife, &c. in case of death of wife slaves to descend to her children, &c.	"	4
Slaves owned by feme covert may be sold by joint deed of husband and wife, &c.	"	5
Wife may make will, &c. and give property to husband or other person with consent of husband subscribed to will, &c.	"	6
If wife have property in slaves in possession, &c. husband to have them recorded, &c.	"	7
Any married woman owning $1000, may hold the same to her sole and separate use, &c. such property liable for any debt of such married woman, &c.	"	8
CONSOLIDATED LOTTERIES — See Lotteries, Tide-Water Canal.
CONSTABLES — See Gaming, A. A. County.
CONSTABLE'S BONDS —In all suits upon, for neglect in not prosecuting any claim, &c. receipt of constable to the creditor for claim for collection to entitle plaintiff to recover, &c.	283	1
The bond which shall be in force when claim is received for collection liable to be recovered upon, &c.	"	2
Second section not to preclude creditor instituting suit upon any other bond for neglect, &c.	"	3
See Talbot County.
CONSTITUTION & FORM OF GOVERNMENT —
To be changed as to provide for the election of a sheriff for Baltimore county and Baltimore city, &c.	246
So amended as to take from legislature the power to aid in making any canals &c. or other works of internal improvement, &c.	276	