

	Chap.	Sec.
Commissioners to give bond &c.	“	2
May borrow money to construct the locks and pledge the proceeds of the lottery,	“	3
In constructing said work no expense to be borne by the state	“	4
TIDE-WATER CANAL —If any person wantonly open any gate, lock, &c. of, or break or injure any work appertaining thereto, to be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to such fine, &c. as county court may enforce. 174		1
Company to make all rules, and to regulate manner in which boats shall have preference in passing locks, &c.; the manner in which boats, &c. shall pass each other, and what kind of lights they shall carry in the night, to prevent the canal from being obstructed by boats, &c. by being made fast to either side; to prescribe where and which side of canal boats, rafts, &c. shall be anchored; to regulate the navigation, and to make all needful rules to prevent frauds in payment of tolls, &c. penalty prescribed for violating, &c.	“	2
Penalty prescribed, if any person navigating, canal take or destroy any fences, &c. if any person having lands along the line of canal, &c.	“	3
Penalty for carelessly breaking any lock and how recovered.	“	4
No person to anchor any vessel so near outlet locks as to obstruct their use, nor build on or against tow-path, and any person offending, for each offence to pay $20.	“	5
Company may remove any obstructions, and prescribe penalties for violation of bye-laws, &c.	“	6
For violation of provisions of this act, and about to leave the state, company may arrest, &c.	“	7
Fines to be recovered as other fines.	“	8
Rights hereafter granted for building outlet locks near Bell’s ferry not to be interfered with.	“	9
Legislature may modify any bye-laws of company.	“	10
TIDE-WATER CANAL CO. — See Internal Improvement Company.		