CHAPTER 74.

Passed Feb.
13, 1843.

A supplement to an act entitled, an act in aid of the construction of an outlet lock of the Tide-water Canal at Bell's Ferry in Harford county, immediately opposite to Port Deposit in Cecil county.

Commissioners authorised to consolidate.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the lottery authorized to be drawn by the act to which this is a supplement, shall be consolidated with the State lotteries, and that the commissioners of lotteries of this State are hereby directed to consolidate the same, and pay to the commissioners named in said original act or appointed in pursuance thereof, or such of them as may give bond as herein directed, a ratable proportion semi-annually of the sum raised by the consolidated lotteries, until the whole sum authorized by said original act and supplements thereto be raised and paid.

Bond to approved by Cecil court.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the said commissioners or some five of them, who are named in, or who have been or may hereafter be appointed in pursuance of the said original act and supplements, shall before they be entitled to receive any money in virtue of this act, enter into bond to the State, with security to be approved by Cecil county court, or one of the judges thereof, in penalty of forty thousand dollars, with condition that the said commissioners shall faithfully apply all such sums of money as they may receive, to the construction of the outlet lock mentioned in said original act, and the supplements thereto, which bond when executed and approved, shall be recorded by the clerk of Cecil county court, within six months from the date thereof, and an office copy thereof shall be evidence in any suit or action instituted upon the same.

May pledge proceeds.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners so giving bond as aforesaid may borrow money to construct said lock, and pledge the proceeds of said lottery for the same.

State to be exempt from expense.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in constructing the said work, and drawing the said lottery or lotteries, no expense thereof shall in any wise be chargeable to the State of Maryland.
