

empowered, to issue a summons or citation, for any delinquent supervisor of the public roads, any collector of state or county taxes, or any other persons having unsettled accounts with said commissioners court, to be returnable in not less than eight, and not more than thirty days, to be directed to the sheriff of said county, who shall receive the same fees, and be liable to the same penalties, as are now received, or incurred by said officer in the service of summons or citation, issued by the orphans court. CHAP. 88.

CHAPTER 88.

A further supplement to an act passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and one, so far as the same relates to Harford County. Passed Feb. 14, 1843.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the twenty-fourth section of the act to which this is a further supplement as directs that if the monies received by the chief justice of the district court be not sufficient to pay the per diem allowed to the district justices, the levy court or county commissioners of the county, shall annually pay to the justices such sums as shall be requisite to make up the full amount of such allowances, be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as relates to Harford county. Repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That an additional court shall be instituted and organized in the Town of Havre-de-Grace, with all the powers and jurisdiction within the incorporated limits of said town as other district court may have and exercise within the limits of their respective districts, under the said act of eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and one, and the several supplements thereto; and the governor is hereby required to appoint three justices for said court residing in the said town, who shall immediately upon the receipt of their several commissions, proceed to organize said court, and shall receive the same compensation and be governed by the same rules and regulations in all respects as the other courts established in Harford county under the act to which this is a further supplement. Additional court instituted, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That to subserve the public convenience and to give the citizen his election of tribunal in cases of contest, and not to force him against his consent into the district courts, that hereafter in all cases of attach- Repealed.