

CHAPTER 93.

CHAP. 94.

An act to allow Samuel Miller late Collector of Cecil County, further time to complete his collections. Passed Jan. 10, 1843.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Allowed to collect.
That Samuel Miller late collector of Cecil County, is hereby authorised and empowered to collect any balance of taxes that may be due the said Samuel Miller, in the same manner and with the same power and privileges as are allowed by law; provided, that if any person, against whom there is a claim by said Miller for taxes as aforesaid, shall make affidavit before any justice of the peace of said county, that the same has been paid, the said Miller shall not be authorised to collect the same by execution in the manner now prescribed by law, but the said affidavit shall not bar the said Miller's right to collect the said taxes as small debts are now recovered by law. Proviso.

CHAPTER 94.

An act for the benefit of the heirs of Robert McCleary, deceased. Passed Jan. 17, 1843.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Catharine McCleary, natural guardian of David, Ann, Maria and Catharine McCleary, infants, or under twenty-one years of age, be, and she is hereby authorized, to unite with the other heirs of the late Robert McCleary, now of lawful age, to make a lease or leases for the benefit of the heirs of the said McCleary, of a lot of ground No. 235, lying in the town of Cumberland, to which they are entitled as heirs of the said McCleary, for any term or terms not exceeding nine years, at which time the youngest of said children will be twenty-one years of age. Authorised to unite with the other heirs.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Catharine McCleary on the part of said infants, and the heirs of lawful age, to stipulate with the lessees for the free and unobstructed removal by them at the expiration of their respective terms, of all improvements erected by them on the premises leased; provided, all arrears of rent shall have been previously paid to the person or persons authorized to receive the same, and that the premises be left by the lessees in equally good condition as when leased to them. To stipulate with lessees, &c. Proviso.
