

CHAP. 123. publish for five weeks in some newspaper in Frederick, a list of balances and unclaimed dividends of more than three years standing upon the books of the institution.

Three years allowed to settle up affairs.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if at any time hereafter the legislature shall see fit to exercise the right reserved by the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, and shall annul the charter of the Frederick Town Savings Institution, or shall pass an act to alter or change said charter and the act so to alter or change the same, shall not be accepted by the said institution, that then and in either of the said cases, the said institution shall have at least three years from the time of the passage of such act annulling or altering its charter to collect all debts due it and settle up its affairs, and during such three years shall have and possess all the corporate powers and privileges necessary for such purpose; provided, that this act shall not preclude the court of chancery or the county court, as a court of equity, from authority to appoint trustees to settle and wind up said institution in case of repeal of its charter.

Proviso.

Have effect from passage.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall have effect from the passage thereof.

CHAPTER 123.

Passed Feb. 20, 1843. An act to regulate the manner of public advertisements in Somerset and Charles Counties.

Repealed as relates to Somerset and Charles.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the several acts of assembly requiring executors, administrators, trustees, sheriffs, ex-sheriffs, coroners and constables, to give public notice through the medium of the newspapers, be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to Somerset and Charles counties.

Discretionary power in giving notice.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all executors, administrators, trustees, sheriffs, ex-sheriffs, coroners and constables in said counties, may and shall after the passage of this act, exercise a discretionary power in giving notices either by inserting the same in the public print or by putting them at the court house door and other public places in said counties, in the manner now provided by law, in counties where no newspaper is published.

Repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all laws incompatible with the provisions of this act, so far as the same relates to Somerset and Charles counties, be, and the same are hereby repealed.