

CHAP. 172.

CHAPTER 171.

Passed Feb 27, 1844. An act to allow Thomas M. D. Baden, late collector of Prince George's County, further time to complete his collections.

Authorised to collect.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas M. D. Baden, late collector of Prince Georges county, be and he is authorised and empowered to collect any balances of taxes that may be due the said Thomas M. D. Baden, in the same manner and with the same power and privileges as are allowed by law, provided, that if any person against whom there is a claim by said Baden, for taxes as aforesaid, shall make affidavit before any justice of the peace of said county, that the same has been paid the said Baden, shall not be authorised to collect the same by execution in the manner now prescribed by law, but the said affidavit shall not bar the said Baden's right to collect said taxes as small debts are now recovered by law.

Proviso.

Expire in 1845.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to effect the estate of any deceased person, and that this act shall expire on the first day of January eighteen hundred and forty-five.

CHAPTER 172.

Passed Feb. 27, 1844. An act to amend an act to incorporate the Allegany Mining Company, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter three hundred and twenty-six.

Same rates of toll or transportation as the Rail Road.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the Allegany Mining Company, to charge, demand and receive for all persons and property transported on the Rail Road, which they are authorised to construct from their mines to the canal or other point, in or near the town of Cumberland, the same rates of toll or prices of transportation, as the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company are by law allowed to charge and receive.

Not necessary for company to construct, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary for the said Allegany Mining Company, to construct their said rail road, or any lateral way, from their said works or mines to the basin of the said canal at Cumberland, but
