

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons not having their lands enclosed with such fence or fences as are mentioned in the second section of this act, shall impound, kill or otherwise damage any hog, cow, sheep, horse or other cattle or stock which shall be found on his, her or their said lands, the owner or owners of such hog, cow, sheep, horse or other cattle may apply to a justice of the peace of the county, who shall issue a warrant for damages against such person or persons so doing or causing such damage as aforesaid for the use of the person so applying to him as aforesaid, and it shall be the duty of said justice at the time of issuing said warrant to issue a summons to three freeholders of said county requiring them or a majority of them to meet on the premises and ascertain and value the damage or damages so done as aforesaid, and to appear before said justice on the return day of said warrant to testify in the premises, and the said justice upon due proof of all the facts aforesaid being made to him, shall give judgment in favor of the said plaintiff against the said defendant for such sum as the said freeholders or a majority of them shall have testified to be correct and proper damages.

CHAP. 212.

Justice may issue writ for damages.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the fees of all officers in executing this act shall be the same as are now allowed by law in other cases before a justice of the peace, or in the county court as the case may be, and the said freeholders shall be allowed the same per diem for each day they may be engaged under the provisions of this act as is allowed to witnesses in cases of small debts.

Fees same as in other cases.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall not extend or be applicable to hogs or swine going at large within five miles of the bounds of the city of Baltimore.

Not to apply to hogs going at large &c.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER. 212.

An act to renew the Charter of the Havre-de-Grace Bank, with modifications.

Passed March 2, 1844.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Bank called and known by the name of the Havre-de-Grace Bank, shall be re-established in the town of Havre-de-Grace, in Harford county.

Re-established.