CHAP. 227. visions of the original act, to which this is a supplement, any houses or buildings, which the ward or wards of such guardian may own, either jointly with others or in severality, and such insurance to have the same lien, and to have the same effect in all respects, as if such minors were of full age, and had made such insurance themselves.

CHAPTER 226.

Passed Feb. 14, 1844. An act to regulate the appointment of the steward or overseer of Cecil County Alms House.

Trustees to appoint.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the Alms House of Cecil county, shall on or before the first day of February, in each and every year, appoint the superintendant or overseer of said Alms House; such appointment to take effect on the twenty-fifth day of March next ensuing, and shall within ten days after such appointment, inform such overseer of his appointment in writing; and where the incumbent is removed, give him notice of his discharge.

CHAPTER 227.

Passed Feb. 20, 1844. A further supplement to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Maryland Mining Company.

To charge and receive same tolls as Rail Road.

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the Maryland Mining Company, to charge, demand and receive, for all persons and property transported on the rail road or any lateral way, which they are, or shall be authorised to construct from their mines to the basin of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal or other points in or near the town of Cumberland, the same rates of toll or prices of transportation as the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road are or shall be by law allowed to charge and receive. AND WHEREAS doubts may exist whether the said company would be authorised, under the act and the supplement thereto, to which this is a further supplement, to construct a rail road from their mines or works to some intermediate point or points between the
