

basin of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal at Cumberland and their mines and works aforesaid, should circumstances render the extension of their road to the basin of the canal at Cumberland, unnecessary, as will probably be the case, if the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, or the said canal company extend their works up the valley of Jennings Run, to give additional facilities to the coal and iron trade. Therefore,

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That it shall not be necessary for the said Maryland Mining Company, to construct their said road or any lateral way from their mines or works to the basin of the said canal company at Cumberland, but that the same may be stopped at any intermediate point, at the discretion of the company, and that it shall be lawful to charge the same rates of toll for the transportation of persons or property upon such road, when constructed, as are authorised by the first section hereof; provided, that the said rail road be constructed so as to intersect with the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, or the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, or the improved navigation of Wills Creek or the Potomac by Canal or otherwise.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That a quorum for the transaction of business of the said Maryland Mining Company, may hereafter consist of the President and any two or three Directors, provided, the said company shall make a by-law for that purpose. Provided, that nothing herein shall authorise this company to intersect the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, without the consent of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That stockholders meetings of the company, shall be called by ten days previous notice in one newspaper printed in the town of Cumberland and one in the city of Baltimore.

CHAP. 228.

Discretion of company. To charge same tolls as by 1st section.

Proviso.

President and any two or three directors

Provisoes.

Ten days notice.

CHAPTER 228.

An act to allow William R. Trippe, former collector of Talbot County, further time to complete his collections.

Passed Feb. 22, 1844.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the time now allowed by law to William R. Trippe, former collector of Talbot county, to complete his collections, be extended until the twentieth day of October, eighteen hundred and forty-four.

Time extended.