

CHAP. 276.

Seines, nets &c. may be seized.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person or persons to seize any seine or nets attached to such stakes or piles or the boats and materials used therein, and any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland is hereby authorised upon proof exhibited before him of such seine boat or other article having been used in fishing to condemn the same, and after such condemnation and ten days public notice by advertisement in a newspaper in the county or written advertisement set up at three of the most public places in the neighbourhood, such seine, boat or other article so used and condemned, shall be sold to the highest bidder and after deducting all costs and expenses, the nett proceeds of such sale shall be paid over to the person or persons seizing the same and any person or persons resisting such seizure with violence or injury to the person or persons attempting such seizure shall be deemed guilty of assault and battery, and may be proceeded against in the usual forms of such proceedings; provided however, that nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to extend to any gilling seines or nets as are now usually anchored or drifted in said waters.

Proviso.

Parties may appeal, &c.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That any party or parties, that may feel aggrieved by any judgment rendered by any justice of the peace or magistrate's court, shall have the right to appeal therefrom, to the county court, under the same regulations and proceedings in relation to appeals from judgments of justices of the peace as are now provided by law, and provided, that nothing contained in this act, shall be construed to debar any party of his said right of appeal.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 276.

Passed March 5, 1844.

An act for the benefit of the securities of Frederick Wilson, former Register of Wills for Kent county.

Securities authorised to make out list of fees.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the securities on the official bond of Frederick Wilson, former register of wills of Kent county, be and they are hereby authorized to make out the list of fees due said register at the time of his death, and to place the same in the hands of the sheriff for collection, and the said sheriff is authorized to collect the same in the same manner as officer's fees are collected, and when collected, and after