

CHAP. 279. capias ad respondendum issued out of any county court of this State, and the said defendant, so being arrested, shall apply for the benefit of the insolvent laws and thereupon obtain his personal discharge, the said defendant shall be obliged to execute a warrant of attorney to some attorney of the court out of which such capias ad respondendum issued to appear for him to the case, wherein said capias ad respondendum issued, and if said defendant shall refuse to execute such warrant of attorney, the sheriff shall be authorised to detain said defendant and to bring him into court according to said capias ad respondendum, notwithstanding said personal discharge.

CHAPTER 279.

Passed March
8, 1844.

Preamble.

An act entitled, an act to appoint Trustees for a certain Church in Baltimore county, called Friendship.

WHEREAS, by a certain deed of conveyance bearing date the twentieth day of May eighteen hundred and twenty-six, made and executed by a certain Thomas Slade, of Baltimore county, and State of Maryland, (since dead,) to John Wiese, Christopher Bull, Ambrose Bull, Joseph Pearce and Nicholas Bull, all of the county and State aforesaid, as trustees a certain piece or parcel of ground, lying and being in the county and State aforesaid, for the purpose of erecting a house of worship or school house thereon, for the benefit and accommodation of the public, and free for all denominations of religious associations for the purpose of holding religious worship; AND WHEREAS, since the foregoing date before mentioned three of the before mentioned trustees have departed this life to wit: John Wiese, Christopher Bull and Joseph Pearce, and left the board of trustees without a quorum to transact the business of the institutions or church which is called and known by the name of Friendship Meeting House in the vicinity of Wiseburgh—Therefore,

Trustees.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for the purpose of perpetuating the foregoing described piece or parcel of ground with the improvements thereon, as a place of public worship or school as the case may be, that William Rowe, Thomas Hunter and George Little, be and the same are hereby appointed trustees in conjunction with the said Ambrose Bull and Nicholas Bull, senior, two of the surviving ori-