

ginal trustees of the aforesaid described property, with power to transact and settle all business of said church or school as the case may be. CHAP. 281.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said William Rowe, Thomas Hunter, George Little, Ambrose Bull and Nicholas Bull, senior, be and they are hereby constituted and appointed the trustees of said property for the purposes therein mentioned, with full power to transact all business connected or appertaining to the said church or school not inconsistent with the purposes herein set forth, and for the purpose of perpetuating the same, the said be fore mentioned trustees or a majority of them, or the survivors of them shall have power to fill such vacancy or vacancies as may occur from time to time by death, resignation, removal or disqualification, provided always, not less than a majority of the same constitute a board for the transaction of business. Trustees. Proviso.

CHAPTER 280.

A supplement to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Patuxent Company. Passed March 7, 1844.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Patuxent Company may increase its capital stock, in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars; and any increase in the capital stock of said company, shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. May increase capital stock to $100,000.

CHAPTER 281.

An act entitled a further supplement to the act authorising the appointing of inspectors and wood corders, and to regulate the cording of wood, brought to the city of Baltimore. Passed March 7, 1844.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the vendor or vendors of wood brought to the city of Baltimore by water for sale, to dispose of the same without being measured by the inspectors or corders of wood in said city; provided, the purchaser or purchasers thereof, agree to the measurement of the said ven- Vendors of wood may sell without measurement. Proviso.