CHAPTER. 291.

An act for the benefit of Lemuel Dunbracco, collector of the State taxes in Queen Ann's county, for the year eighteen hundred and and forty-two.

Passed March 7, 1844.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this General Assembly, that Lemuel Dunbracco of Queen Ann's county, on the sixth day of May eighteen hundred and forty-three, was appointed collector of the State taxes of said county, for the year eighteen hundred and forty-two, and gave bond with approved security for the faithful performance of his duty as such; but that owing to reasons over which he had no control, the levy list was not placed in his hands, until the fifth of September, of the year eighteen hundred and forty-three, thus rendering it impossible for him to make the payment into the Treasury by the first of September of the year last aforesaid, as required by the act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-two, and for his failure to do which, suit was brought on his official bond to the last November term of the said county court; for remedy whereof, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deputy of the Attorney General be and he is hereby authorised and required to discontinue further proceedings in the said cause or causes, provided all the parties in the said court give their assent thereto in writing, to be filed by the clerk of the county court in the said cause.

Deputy Attorney General to discontinue proceedings. Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Lemuel Dunbracco, shall be entitled to all the privileges as collector of the taxes aforesaid, and to none others to which the other collector of the taxes are entitled under existing laws.

Entitled to all the privileges of collector.
