

CHAP. 307. the intersection with the road from Rockville to Baltimore, to the Cracklin road near Nathan Ricketts, commonly known as Robertson's mill road. AND WHEREAS the removal of the gates upon the road aforesaid, would subject the owners of the land through which the road passes to great loss and inconvenience. Therefore,

Owners to retain gates.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the owners of the lands through which the road commonly known as Robertson's mill road, as described aforesaid passes, are hereby authorised to retain the gates on the said road, or to erect others in their stead and to repair and keep up the same.

Annulled.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the order passed by the board of commissioners of Montgomery county, directing J. S. Manakee, a supervisor of the public road in Montgomery county, to remove the gates from the aforesaid road, be and the same is hereby abrogated and annulled.

CHAPTER 307.

Passed March 8, 1844.

A supplement to the act entitled, an act to raise additional revenue to aid in paying the debts of the State, by laying a tax on salaries, incomes, emoluments and profits, passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter, three hundred and twenty-five.

Where assessors have not qualified, Governor to appoint.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the levy courts or commissioners, as the case may be of the several counties and of Howard District, and the mayor and city council of Baltimore, shall not have appointed assessors of all salaries, incomes, emoluments and profits, as directed by the third section of the act to which this is a supplement, and the declaratory act of eighteen hundred and forty-two, chapter two hundred and ninety-four, and said assessors shall not have qualified on or before the first day of May next, ensuing the passage of this act, then and in that case it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and he is hereby authorised and directed to appoint assessors for the county, district or city, in which such appointment shall not have been made; and said assessors so appointed by the Governor, shall after having qualified in the manner directed by the said original act, by taking and subscribing the oath or affirmation therein prescribed, and in other respects conforming to the requisitions of the said original act, proceed to the discharge of their duty