

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the compensation of the said assessors and collectors, shall be fixed and paid in the manner pointed out in the fifteenth section of the original act and the fifth and sixth sections of said declaratory act.

CHAP. 309.
Compensation prescribed.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That whenever any person who may have been assessed under the provisions of the acts to which this is a supplement, shall make oath that his actual income has not exceeded the sum of three hundred dollars, the levy courts or commissioners of the several counties, and of Howard District, and the appeal tax court of the city of Baltimore, shall be authorised to exempt said person from the payment of the amount of tax with which he is chargeable.

Persons who make oath, that their income does not exceed $300 exempt.

CHAPTER 308.

An act to repeal the act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-two, chapter one hundred and twenty-three, so far as the same relates to Somerset County.

Passed March 8, 1844.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the act entitled an act to regulate the manner of public advertisements in Somerset and Charles counties, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-two, chapter one hundred and twenty-three, be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to Somerset county, and all laws repealed by said act, be and the same are hereby re-enacted and declared to be in full force. Provided, that no printer or proprietor of newspaper in Somerset county, shall be authorised to charge, have or recover for printing and publishing in any newspaper, the notices of executors, administrators, trustee's, sheriff's, coroners or constables, more than one dollar for the first three insertions, of one square, and twenty-five cents for every subsequent insertion beyond three times; and provided further, that a square within the meaning of the act, shall be sixteen lines or less, and all over sixteen lines and less than thirty-three lines, shall be taken and considered to be two squares and so on in that proportion.

Repealed.

Re-enacted.

Provisoos.

CHAPTER 309.

An act entitled an act to provide for the extension of the Belle Air Market Space, in the city of Baltimore.

Passed March 8, 1844.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Belle Air Market Space in the city of Market extended.