

CHAP. 326.

Not to exempt
company from taxation.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the estate, real, personal and mixed of said company from taxation, under any of the laws now in force, in this State, or which may hereafter be passed by the General Assembly of Maryland, but the same shall be liable thereto, to the same extent as other estate, real, personal and mixed within the State, and all taxes assessed or levied upon said property, real personal and mixed, shall be paid by the officers of said company, and deducted ratably from the dividends and interest of the individual stockholders and owners of certificates in said company.

In force when assent of the stockholders
are obtained.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into operation and be in force so soon as it shall receive the assent of the stockholders, owners of a majority of the shares of the capital stock of the present company, in general meeting assembled, which assent under the corporate seal of the company shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

Issues forbid.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorise the said company to issue any device, token, note, certificate or other evidence of debt to be used as currency.

Liabilities
may be enforced.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That all liabilities which may have been incurred by the said corporation before the passage of this act, may be enforced against the said General Mutual Insurance Company as fully and effectually as if this act had not passed.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the General Assembly hereby reserves to itself the power to repeal this charter at its pleasure.
