

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid James B. Morris shall in every instance before he may proceed to the aforesaid collection make affidavit before some justice of the peace of said county, that the same remain unpaid, and that he hath not received any security or satisfaction for the same or any part thereof, more than what credits may be allowed thereon.

CHAP. 327
Make affidavit

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the same extension of time, accompanied with the same restrictions, which is hereby granted to James B. Morris, collector of the sixth collection district of Howard District, be and is hereby extended to Charles G. Haslup, collector of taxes for the fifth collection district of Howard District of Anne Arundle county.

Extended to Charles G.
Haslup.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall not continue in force longer than one year from the date of the passage thereof.

In force one year.

CHAPTER 327.

An act for the benefit of John B. Perdue of Worcester County.

Passed March 9, 1844.

WHEREAS John B. Perdue of Worcester county, by his petition set forth, that on the twenty-second day of May eighteen hundred and forty-two, he had resurveyed and laid out for him sundry tracts of land lying in the county aforesaid and a certificate returned to the land office, called Perdues Double Trouble, containing four hundred and eighty acres, that he is desirous of obtaining a patent on his certificate of resurvey and thereby perfecting his title to the same from the State, but cannot do so, because the rules and law of the land office requires, that the original tracts upon which the resurvey was made, should be patented lands, that he is owner of parts of two of the original tracts included in said resurvey called the End of Strife, and Perdues Double Purchase, both of which have been compounded on, but not patented, and he cannot obtain a patent on his resurvey until those two original tracts are first patented. Therefore,

Preamble

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Register of the Land Office, be and he is hereby required to issue a patent to John B. Perdue, upon the certificates of survey of the tracts of land called the End of Strife and Perdues Double Purchase, to hold for himself and according to the deeds or title he may have

Register to issue patent.