

CHAP. 328.
 surer. The board of managers shall meet monthly and nine members shall be competent to transact business.

ART. 3. The board of managers shall procure suitable accommodations for the infant school, and appoint a competent physician, who may be disposed to render his services without any pecuniary compensation, they shall also appoint such teachers, nurses and assistants, as they may deem requisite, and provide whatever may be necessary for carrying into complete effect the purposes of the institution. They shall have power to call special meetings of the society when necessary, and to supply any vacancies that may occur in the intervals of the elections.

ART. 4. Children male and female, under the age of six years, may be received into the infant school, provided they be free from all contagious disorders, but no child shall partake of the benefits of the institution, unless it shall have passed regularly through the vacine disease, or whose parents or guardians will not consent to its immediate vaccination upon introduction to the establishment.

ART. 5. The board of managers shall keep regular minutes of their transactions, and at the annual meetings, a report of their proceedings, and a statement of their receipts and disbursements shall be submitted for the information of the society, they shall also make by-laws for their own government and that of the school.

ART. 6. In the school which is to be formed under the superintendance of the managers, amusement shall be combined with instruction and employment of suitable kinds shall be afforded to the pupils, the children shall be especially taught the fear of offending their Creator, to be respectful towards their parents, and superiors in age, encouraged to treat each other with kindness. The Holy Scriptures and lessons derivid therefrom, without sectarian interputation, shall form the religious code of the school.

ART. 7. The board of managers shall annually appoint nine gentlemen, members of the society, with whom to consult on such matters relative to its concerns as may require advise and assistance.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the president, directors and managers of the said association shall continue President, directors and managers of the said corporation until their successors be appointed under the fundamental articles aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the annual income of the said corporation, shall not exceed five thousand dollars, and the said corporation shall possess the powers incidental to such bodies, for its conduct, government and due prosecution and defence of its corporate rights and privileges.

President and other officers to act until successors are chosen.

Annual income not to exceed $5000.