

1843.

FRANCIS THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 330.

CHAPTER 329.

Passed March 9, 1844.

An act relating to the collections of State taxes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts are entertained of the power of collectors of State taxes, to follow for the purpose of collection, personal property that has been removed from one collection district of a county to another district of the said county. Therefore,

Collector may pursue property.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever personal property that has been assessed as the property of any individual in any collection district of any county of this State, and removed before the tax levied upon it shall have been collected, the collector in whose hands the levy has been placed for collection, shall have power to pursue said property and collect the tax due upon the same, in the same manner as if said property still remained in his collection district.

CHAPTER 330.

Passed March 9, 1844.

An act to lay off a new school district in Somerset county.

Levy court to appoint three commissioners.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Somerset county, be and they are hereby authorised and required to appoint three commissioners, in and for that election district in Somerset county, known as Brinkley's district, whose duty it shall be to enquire into the propriety of laying off and erecting into a new school district, that portion of said election district, which lies to the west of a line drawn south from the store of James Parke's, (in the lower part of Potatoe neck,) to the Annamessix river, and north from said store to the Monokin river.

Upon favorable report, a school district shall be constituted.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That upon a favorable report to the commissioners of Somerset county, by the commissioners so to be appointed, the said territory so as aforesaid described, shall be constituted a school district subject to all laws and entitled to all privileges that all other school districts in Somerset county, are subject and entitled to.

Commissioners to appoint school trustees.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That in case the said district shall be thus constituted, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners, to appoint school trustees for said school district, and make all other appointments and provisions in regard to the said school district, as are now required by law in regard to all other school districts in Somerset county,
