FRANCIS THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 359.

CHAPTER 357.

Passed March 9, 1844.

An act to prevent trespassing upon Carriages or Coaches in the city of Baltimore.

Subject to fine
&c.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person whatsoever to sit, stand or place himself, or to lay or deposite any bundle, article or burden upon any carriage or coach, whilst the same is being driven through any street, lane, alley or other thoroughfare of the city of Baltimore, without the previous consent of the owner or driver of such carriage or coach, under a penalty of one dollar, for every such offence, recoverable before a justice of the peace for the said city, as small debts are now recovered, and to be applied to the use of the said city, from the party violating the provisions of this act, if of lawful age, or from his parent, guardian or master respectively, if he be under age or an apprentice, servant or slave.
