

power is hereby reserved to the State of Maryland, hereafter to regulate the tolls and reduce the same at the pleasure of the legislature.

CHAP. 361.

SEC. 4. And be it also enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to operate as a release of the obligation on the part of said company to keep in repair the bridge built by said company over the Gunpowder Falls, and the road between said bridge and the tenth mile stone, and also that three miles of the road, as now located beyond the tenth mile stone, shall be considered such a part of the road as shall entitle those persons living on or adjacent to said road, within three miles of said gate to an exemption from paying any toll for passing the said gate more than once in twenty-four hours, and also, that from and after the passage of this act, and acceptance of it by said company, the tolls now authorised by their original charter shall be reduced ten per centum.

Company not released from obligation to keep bridge in repair.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the legislature hereby reserves the right to change modify or repeal at any time, this supplement or the act or acts to which this is a supplement or either of them, and that said company shall have no more toll gates, nor at any other place or places than they now have.

Right reserved.
