CHAPTER 59.

An act to authorise the commissioners of Cecil county, to levy a sum of money to erect a bridge over Back Creek, at or near Chesapeake City.

Passed Feb 2, 1844.

SECTION 1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Kendall S. Cropper, Doctor John Wirt and Edward Scanlin, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of locating and building a bridge over said creek, and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, are by this act empowered and authorised to agree and contract with any person or persons, upon the most economical terms, to construct said bridge.

Commissioners appointed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That a majority of said commissioners, shall keep an accurate account of the money expended in erecting said bridge, and in case there should be any money left unexpended, after building the said bridge, the same shall be returned to the commissioners of Cecil county, to be applied for the benefit of the county.

Account to be kept of money expended, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That a majority of said commissions, shall be competent to transact any business relating to said bridge, and if either of said commissioners shall die, resign or remove out of the county, the commissioners of Cecil county, shall fill such vacancies, and the county commissioners are hereby authorised to make such reasonable compensation to said bridge commissioners, as they in their judgment may deem right.

Majority competent to do business.
