

CHAP. 62.

To inspect said bridge.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners be and they are hereby required to inspect the said bridge as soon as it is completed, and if they are satisfied that it is constructed according to contract, then and in that case they are authorised immediately to call on the collectors for Anne Arundel county, for such sum, not exceeding the sum aforementioned, as they may have agreed to pay for building said bridge; and the said collectors are hereby required to pay to the order of the said commissioners or a majority of them, any sum not exceeding four hundred dollars.

To sell old bridge.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners, at the time and place of contracting for the building of said bridge, according to the second section of this act, to sell the old bridge to the highest bidder for cash, and to apply the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the building of the new bridge.

CHAPTER 62.

Passed Feb.
2, 1844.

An act to incorporate the Frederick Literary Association.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Dr. John W. Geyer, Dr. Jefferson Shields, William L. Schley, Hiram Winchester, Grayson Eichelber, Nathaniel Vernon, John Sifford, Joshua Peterkin, E. Louis Lowe, John H. O'Neill, Jacob F. Kunkel, A. B. Hanson and others, have united themselves under the name and style of the Frederick Literary Association, for the purpose of moral, intellectual and social improvement by means of lectures, discussions, readings and the purchase of a library. Therefore, Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Dr. John W. Geyer, Dr. Jefferson Shields, Wm. L. Schley, Hiram Winchester, Grayson Eichelberger, Nathaniel Vernon, John Sifford, Joshua Peterkin, E. Louis Lowe, John H. O'Neill, Jacob F. Kunkel and A. B. Hanson, for the purposes aforesaid, their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created a corporation and body politic, by the name and style of the Frederick Literary Association, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able and capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, in any court of law or equity, and to make and use a common seal, and the same to change and alter at pleasure, and to ordain and establish such a constitution, by-laws and regulations, not contrary to law as shall be necessary or convenient for conducting the affairs of the corporation.