FRANCIS THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 76.

CHAPTER 75.

Passed Feb. 8, 1844. An act to incorporate the Hebrew Love and Friendship Beneficial Society of the city of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS S. Eytinge, Moses Cohen, S. Binswanger, M. Rosenburgh, Lewis T. Cohen, Simon Frank, F. Roswald and H. Kayton, by their petition to this General Assembly, have set forth that they and others of the city of Baltimore, have formed themselves into an association by the name of the Hebrew Love and Friendship Beneficial Society of the city of Baltimore, for the purpose of providing a fund by small periodical contributions in time of health, for the support of such members of the association during sickness as may hereafter be in need of assistance, and of decently interring them when dead, and with a view the better to carry out the benevolent object of the association, have prayed to be incorporated. Therefore, Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That S. Eytinge, Moses Cohen, S. Binswanger, M. Rosenbergh, Lewis T. Cohen, Simon Frank, F. Boswald, and H. Kayton, and their associates and successors, and those who may hereafter become members of the said association, be and they are hereby created and made a body corporate, by the name and style of the Hebrew Love and Friendship Beneficial Society of the city of Baltimore, and by that name shall have succession for thirty-years, and be capable in law to sue and be sued, to adopt and have a corporate seal, to take, hold, sell and transfer any estate, real, personal and mixed, not exceeding in the whole the value of twenty thousand dollars at one time, and to make a constitution, by-laws, rules and regulations for the government and perpetuation of the said society.

Issues forbid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorise this corporation, to issue any device, token, note, certificate or other evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

Right of appeal

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the right is hereby expressly reserved to the General Assembly of Maryland, at its pleasure, to alter, or repeal this act of incorporation.

CHAPTER 76.
