

tive of this State, a certificate of such determination on or before the first day of June next. CHAP. 96.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the concerns of said bank and branches, shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the treasurer of this State or of the directors of the said bank and branches for the time being, elected by the State, who may be required by either branch of the legislature to make a report thereon. Concerns subject to inspection.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That upon the Farmers Bank of Maryland and its Branches, accepting and complying with the terms and conditions of this act, the faith of this State is hereby pledged not to impose any further tax or burthen upon them, during the continuance of their charter under this act, excepting such equitable assesment as may be levied upon incorporated banks throughout the State by any future legislature. On complying with conditions, state to impose no further tax.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said bank and its branches, shall be subject to such restrictions in regard to the issue of its bank notes, and the denominations thereof, as are or may be prescribed by law, in relation to the issue of banks generally in this State. Provided, that the legislature hereby reserves the power to impose upon this bank any general conditions or restrictions, which may hereafter be imposed upon the banks of the city of Baltimore. Subject to restrictions.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 96.

An act to allow the several collectors of taxes in Baltimore County, herein mentioned further time to complete their collections. Passed Feb. 13, 1844.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Frush, Joseph Walker, Elijah Taylor, Sellman Cox, Peter W. Gibbons, Charles Jessop and George W. Harryman, late collectors of taxes in Baltimore county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to collect all taxes or balances of taxes due them as collectors of tax, in the several districts for which they were appointed as collectors of tax in said county, in the same manner and with the same power and privileges which they might have done, within the time limited by law, provided, that before any one of said collectors shall coerce the payment of any tax as aforesaid, he shall make oath before some justice of the peace for said county, that such tax or the arrears thereof remain due and that he hath not Time allowed.

Proviso.