CHAPTER 123.

An act for the benefit of the infant children of Rasin M. Gale, late of Kent county deceased. Passed Feb. 5, 1844.

WHEREAS it is represented to this General Assembly, that a certain Ann W. Trulock, late of Kent county deceased, by her last will and testament, did devise unto a certain Rasin M. Gale and his heirs, certain real estate in Kent county, and also certain other real estate in said county, to a certain Joseph E. Gale, and whereas the said Rasin M. Gale purchased the interest of the said Joseph E. Gale, in and to the said lands: and whereas the said Rasin M. Gale has departed this life, leaving infant children his heirs at law; and whereas it is also represented that the personal estate of the said Ann W. Trulock, is insufficient for the payment of her debts, and it would be for the interest of the infant children, of the said Rasin M. Gale, that a part of his personal estate, should be applied to the payment of the debts of the said Ann W. Trulock, and thereby secure the said real estate devised to the said Rasin M. Gale, for the use and benefit of his children. Therefore, Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Orphans Court of Kent county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to authorise a portion of the personal estate of Rasin M. Gale, late of said county deceased, to be applied to the payment of the debts of Ann W. Trulock, also late of said county deceased, provided, that in their judgment such application shall be for the benefit and advantage of the infant children of the said Rasin M. Gale deceased. Orphan's court empowered.
