

1843. FRANCIS THOMAS, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 131. be recovered as part of the costs of the case; and that in like manner the justice shall be entitled for his fee in the case, fifty cents, and the justice shall pay to the register of the city aforesaid, or to the commissioners of the county the penalties received under any prosecution as aforesaid.

In force—limit, &c.

SEC. 4. And be in enacted, That this act shall be in force only as to the limits of the city of Baltimore, and to the portions of Baltimore county, within four miles from said limits.

---

CHAPTER 130.

Passed Feb. 17, 1844.

An act to change the name of the village in Cecil county, known by the name of Harris's Cross Roads to that of Harrisville.

Name changed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the village in Cecil county, heretofore known by the name of Harris's Cross Roads, is hereby changed to Harrisville, and forever hereafter, shall be known by that name.

---

CHAPTER 131.

Passed Feb. 17, 1844.

A supplement to the act entitled, an act to establish Magistrate's Courts in the several counties of the State, wherein Magistrates Courts at present exists, and to prescribe their jurisdiction.

Justices to direct writ to constable.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for the justices of the district court in the several counties of this State, where Magistrates Courts exists, in issuing any writ or precept from said court to direct the same to any constable in the county, regularly appointed and bonded, and that the constable to whom any writ or precept shall be so directed, be and he is hereby authorised, empowered and directed to serve and execute said writ or precept, in the same manner and with the same form; as if said writ or precept had have been directed to a constable of the district for which said district court is appointed.