XV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That this act shall continue in force until the expiration of the year eighteen hundred and fifteen, and until the end of the next session of assembly thereafter.

C H A P. XXVII.

An ACT for the benefit of Margaretta Chalmers.

Passed 15th of
January, 1808.
Preamble.

WHEREAS the said Margaretta, and her son Alexander Jekill Chalmers, have by their petition set forth, that a large and valuable estate of James Chalmers, deceased, the late husband of the said Margaretta, became forfeited to the state, and that under the act of November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-two, the intendant of the revenue was authorised to reserve a portion of the estate on the application of the wife of the person whose property had been forfeited, and that the intendant had set apart or reserved some personal property and three hundred acres of land in Kent county, the same being the land described in the books of the intendant, and now deposited in the office of the auditor-general of this state, by lots number one and number two: And whereas the said Margaretta Chalmers has continued to hold the same to the present time, and the said Margaretta, and her son Alexander Jekill Chalmers, have prayed that the interest the state may have in the small remnant of the estate of said James Chalmers, may be released to his widow; and this general assembly being willing to relinquish the interest of the state, of, in and to, the property so as aforesaid reserved, therefore,

Interest transferred, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the interest of the state of Maryland of, in and to, the real and personal property of the said James Chalmers, so as aforesaid reserved; shall be and the same is hereby transferred to the said Margaretta Chalmers and her heirs, for ever; provided, that nothing herein contained shall in any wise invalidate or destroy any right, title, interest or claim, which any other person or persons may have acquired in the said property, by, from or under, the said Margaretta Chalmers.

C H A P. XXVIII.

A Further supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate elections.

Passed 15th of
January, 1808.

Commissioners appointed, &c.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Barton Tabbs, Edward Mattingly, William Hebb, James Hopewell, Matthias Clarke, Joseph Ford, senior, and Charles Chilton, be and they are hereby appointed and authorised, or a majority of them, or a majority of the survivors of them, commissioners to lay off Saint Mary's county into four separate electional districts, in conformity to the act, entitled, An act to alter, change and repeal, such parts of the constitution and form of government of this state as relate to the division of Saint Mary's county into electional districts, and of the act, entitled, An act to confirm an act, entitled, An act to alter, change and repeal, such parts of the constitution and form of government of this state as relate to the division of Saint Mary's county into electional districts, carefully making the several districts as nearly equal as possible, having regard to population, extent, and convenience of the voters; provided, that the said commissioners shall lay off the upper district, heretofore designated by number two, as it is now located; and each election district shall be numbered by the said commissioners, and known thereafter by such number; and also to make choice of a place in each district at which the election shall be held, as nearly central as shall be practicable, having regard to the circumstances aforesaid, and the accommodation of persons attendant upon such election; and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, or a majority of the survivors of them, shall, on or before the fifteenth day of July next, deliver to the clerk of the county court of said county, a description, in writing, under their hands and seals, specifying plainly the boundaries and number of each district, and also the place in each district where the election for such district shall be held, and the said clerk shall record the same in the records of said county.
