C H A P. LX.

Passed 20th of January, 1808. A Further supplement to an act, entitled, An act for erecting a village at Choptank bridge, in Caroline county, and for other purposes.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of said village, that they are by an act of assembly compelled to keep their swine and geese from running at large in said village, but they still labour under inconveniencies from swine and geese belonging to the inhabitants of said county running at large within the limits of said village; therefore,

Bailiff may seize geese, &c. II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of April next; the bailiff of said village shall have full power and authority to seize and secure any geese or swine that may be found running at large within the limits of said village, belonging to any person or persons residing within the aforesaid county, and the same retain in his possession till the owner or owners thereof shall pay three shillings for every hog or half dozen geese, and a proportionable sum for every goose, so taken up, one half for the use of the bailiff taking up and securing the same, and the other half to be applied to the use and improvement of said village in such manner as the commissioners of said village, or a majority of them, shall direct; and in case the owner or owners of such swine and geese as aforesaid, shall not, within three days after having notice of such seizure, pay the aforesaid sum of three shillings for every hog or half dozen geese, and so in proportion for every goose, seized as aforesaid, to the bailiff of said village, in such case the whole of such seizure shall be forfeited for the use aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for the bailiff to sell the same at public sale, after giving five days notice of said sale, in the said village, between the hours of nine and twelve o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and to apply the money arising from such sale to the uses aforesaid.
