

turnpike road, and the president, managers and company, of the Baltimore and York-town turnpike road, have, by their petition to this general assembly, prayed that the following explanations and alterations be made in the charter or act of incorporation of said companies; and the prayer of their petition appearing reasonable and just, therefore,

C H A P. CXXX.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all transfers of stock in said companies, executed either in person or by attorney, in the presence of the secretary of the said respective companies, shall have the same effect and validity as if such transfers had been executed in the presence of the president or treasurer of said companies respectively.

Transfers to have effect, &c.

III. AND, whereas in making said new roads the beds of the old roads are frequently departed from, and doubts are entertained whether the proprietors of the land through which such parts of the old roads pass are authorised in shutting up the same; therefore, BE IT ENACTED, That wherever the new roads shall depart from the beds of the old roads respectively, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the levy courts for the several counties where such departure may exist, to authorise the shutting up of such parts of the said old roads as shall be departed from by the said new roads respectively, provided the same be wished for by the parties through whose lands such parts of the said old roads may pass.

Parts of old roads may be shut up, &c.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the valuation of the real and personal property within this state.

Passed 20th of January, 1808.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that considerable delay and inconvenience do arise from the late period at which the commissioners are directed to meet by the original act to which this is a supplement; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the tax in all the several counties of this state, may meet on the first Monday of April instead of the first Monday of June.

Commissioners may meet, &c.

C H A P. CXXXII.

An ACT authorising the commissioners appointed to superintend the building of the state penitentiary to exchange with the justices of the levy court for Baltimore county the property therein mentioned.

Passed 20th of January, 1808.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the memorial of the said commissioners, that it would highly promote the conveniencies of the said penitentiary if they were authorised to exchange a part of the lot whereon the said penitentiary is erected, with the justices of the levy court for Baltimore county, for a part of the county gaol lot, so as to reduce the same more nearly to a square; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said commissioners, and the justices of the levy court for Baltimore county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to exchange such parts of the said lots of ground as the said commissioners and justices of the levy court shall be of opinion ought to be exchanged, and the said commissioners and justices of the said levy court are hereby authorised and empowered to sign, seal, execute, acknowledge, and procure to be recorded, agreeably to the laws of this state, a deed of exchange for such parts of the said lots of ground as shall be exchanged as aforesaid.

Commissioners and justices may exchange, &c.

C H A P. CXXXIII.

An ACT to incorporate the New-Market fire company in the precincts of Baltimore.

Passed 20th of January, 1808.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the president and members of the New-Market fire company, in the precincts of the city of Baltimore, that they have purchased a fire engine, and other apparatus, for the extinguishment of fire, and have obtained a lot of ground from John Eager Howard for the purpose of erecting thereon a house for the reception of the engine, and to be used for such other purposes as shall tend to promote the interest of the institution; and in order to secure the right and title to the said property, and to give effect to the laws, rules and regulations, which have or may be established by the said company, it has been prayed that an act of incorporation may pass in their favour; therefore,

Preamble.
