An ACT to make valid a deed from Charlotte Murray to John Murray, of Dorchester county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of John Murray, of Dorchester county, that his brother William Vans Murray, late of Dorchester county, deceased, did, by his last will and testament, devise certain real estate, lying in the county aforesaid, to his wife, Charlotte Murray, who was born in the dominions of the king of Great-Britain, and although then residing in the state of Maryland, had never been naturalized as a citizen of America: And whereas it is also represented by the said John Murray, that the said Charlotte Murray hath sold, and conveyed to him by deed, the real estate aforesaid, devised to her by her said husband, and it is apprehended that the said real estate may be liable to be escheated from the circumstance of the said Charlotte Murray having been an alien at the time of making the conveyance aforesaid, and the said John Murray praying that his title to the said estate may be confirmed so far as the state may be interested therein; therefore,
