

CHAP. 109. supply the places of the commissioners of the third class, and in like manner two commissioners, as aforesaid qualified and resident in the second commissioners district shall be elected at the annual election in eighteen hundred and forty, to supply the places of the commissioners of the second class; and in like manner two commissioners qualified as aforesaid, and residents in the first commissioners' district, shall be elected at the annual election in eighteen hundred and forty-one, to supply the places of the commissioners of the first class; and the commissioners to be elected at the annual election of eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, eighteen hundred and forty, and eighteen hundred and forty-one, shall hold their offices for the term of three years; and at the annual election for ever thereafter, two commissioners, qualified as aforesaid, shall be elected to supply the places of those whose term of office shall be about to expire.

Two in 1840

Two in 1841

Each for three years

Tri-annual elections thereafter

Case of vacancy

Appointment till next annual election

Then successor chosen for residue

Commissioners' compensation

Compensation to their clerk $ 00

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any commissioner elected as aforesaid, shall die, resign, or refuse, or neglect for twenty days after his election, to qualify as commissioner, or shall remove from the county, at any time within the period for which he shall have been elected, the remaining commissioners, who shall have qualified according to law, shall proceed to appoint a person, possessing the qualifications required in the commissioner so dying, resigning, or refusing, or neglecting to qualify, or removing from the county aforesaid, to fill his place, and the commissioner or commissioners so appointed, shall continue in office until the next ensuing annual election in the said county, and until the election and qualification of his successor, when a person duly qualified as aforesaid, shall be elected to supply the vacancy created as aforesaid, to serve the residue of the term of the commissioner so dying, resigning, refusing or neglecting to qualify, or removing as aforesaid.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall be entitled to receive the same compensation which is now allowed by law to the jurors of Somerset county, for each and every day they shall necessarily attend to the duties of their office.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the clerk to the commissioners for Somerset county shall be entitled to