

CHAP. 117 and she is hereby divorced from her husband Samuel Barron, a vinculo matrimonii.

---

CHAPTER 116.

Passed Mar. 5, 1839. An act to allow Ann Camden, to bring into this State certain slaves.

Permission granted Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
 That it may and shall be lawful for Ann Camden, of Prince George's county, to bring into this State the following slaves, to wit: Maria, aged eighteen years, George aged fourteen years, Caroline aged twelve years, Mary, aged eight years, and Thomas, aged two years; Provided, the said Ann Camden shall, within thirty days after she brings the said slaves into this State, make oath before some justice of the peace, in and for the county, into which she may introduce said slaves, that they are slaves for life, and shall lodge said affidavit, together with a list of the names and ages of said slaves, with the clerk of said county, to be by him recorded; and provided also, that the said Ann Camden, shall also make oath before some justice of the peace of said county, that the said slaves were formerly removed from this State, into that part of the District of Columbia which was ceded by the State of Maryland to the United States, and that they have ever since resided there.

Proviso

---

CHAPTER 117.

Passed Mar. 4, 1839. An act for the relief Isaac Gibbons.

Compensation directed Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
 That the commissioners for Somerset county, be, and they are hereby required to pay to Isaac Gibbons, clerk of said commissioners, the sum of one hundred dollars, as additional compensation for his services, for the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight.