Bond required of trustees

Sale to be reported

Subject to confirmation

Proceeds invested

Trustees' compensation

Disposition directed

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall give bond to the State of Maryland, in such penalty as the said court may direct, for the faithful performance of their trust, and all sales which may be made by them shall be reported to the said court, which shall be ratified and confirmed in the same manner as is usual in sales made under a decree of said court, and the same trustees shall also be bound to satisfy the said court that they have in good faith, invested the proceeds in the manner above directed, and on the confirmation by said court of any purchase or purchases which may be made by said trustees, their bond shall by such confirmation be discharged, and the said trustees shall, for their trouble, be entitled to such commission and expenses as the court shall allow.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the property purchased by said trustees shall be conveyed to the said Thomasina H. Gist, and her heirs, on the part of the father, and shall descend in case of her death, as if she had become seized thereof by descent on the part of the father; Provided, nevertheless, that the said county court shall not pass any decree for the sale of said lands, until the guardian of the said Thomasina H. Gist, shall upon his oath have reported to the court, the number of acres of land, and the price thereof, and its contiguity to the dwelling farm before mentioned, which the said guardian may propose to purchase, with the proceeds of sales of said lands, to be made by the Trustee as hereinbefore provided.

CHAPTER 131.

Passed Feb. 25, 1839, An act for the benefit of the Infant Children of the late Daniel Clarke.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it appears by the petition of the widow and administratrix, of the late Daniel Clarke, and of the co-administrators, William D. Bowie, of Prince George's county, and Thomas Duckett, of the city of Annapolis, that it will be for the benefit of the Infant Children of the deceased, to work with the personal estate for the space of one year, all the real estate of which at the time of his death, he was seized and pos-
