

bers as they may admit, be, and they are hereby declared to be a community, corporation, and body politic forever, by the name and style of the High School of Baltimore, and by that name they and their successors shall, and may at all times hereafter, be capable in law to have, receive and retain to them, and their successors, property, real and personal; also devises, bequests and donations of any person or persons, bodies corporate and politic, capable in law of making the same, and the same in their pleasure to transfer and dispose of in such manner as they may think proper; provided always, that the said corporation shall not at any time hold property, real, personal or mixed, exceeding in total value three thousand dollars per annum, and the said corporation by the name and title aforesaid shall be forever hereafter capable in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended, in all or any courts of justice, and before all and any judges, officers or persons whatsoever, in all and singular actions, demands or matters whatsoever.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the corporation to have a common seal, and the same at their will and pleasure to change, alter and make new, from time to time, as they may think best, and shall in general have and exercise all such rights, privileges and immunities as by law are incident to, or necessary for corporations of this character, and to enable the members of the same to exercise all things concerning the design thereof, which is hereby declared to be the promotion and advancement of education, the cultivation and diffusion of literature, science and the arts in all their departments and faculties, for the benefit of both sexes of all religious denominations.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the General Assembly of Maryland hereby reserves the right to change, alter or amend this act of incorporation at any time.