

CHAP. 22.

Mortgage to embrace premises

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the mortgage, the bill and proceedings thereunder, in the case of Battee and Hurst, against John McNeill and Mesheck Frost, in the court of chancery in which Bene S. Pigman was appointed trustee to sell the mortgage premises therein mentioned, shall be taken and considered to embrace, instead of lot number twenty eight, all that part of lot number two on the plot of Frostburg, in Allegany county, lying between a lot in said town and county, heretofore sold to George Hoblitzell and Lownds, beginning for the said part at Lownds corner of his house, now standing near said part of ground, and running north fifty-six degrees, west sixty-six feet to Hoblitzell's line, thence south forty four degrees, west one hundred and sixty-five feet, thence south fifty-six degrees, east sixty-six feet to a stone marked B, then by a straight line to the beginning, containing a quarter of an acre of ground, more or less, and the said decree shall have the same effect, as if said part of lot number two had been inserted in the said mortgage, instead of lot number twenty-eight.

Note on Chancery record directed

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the Register of the Court of Chancery, shall at the request and cost of the said Tobias Riley, his heirs or assigns, enter upon the book of record of the proceedings, in the court of chancery in the case mentioned in the third section of this act, a note or memorandum in such manner, as upon the inspection of the said record, the purpose of this act may be known, and its object ascertained.

CHAPTER 22.

Passed Jan. 25,
1839.

An act for the establishment of a municipal jurisdiction over a part of Anne Arundel County, and to alter and change the Constitution of this State, as far as may be necessary to effect the same.

Lines of Howard
District

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That after the confirmation of this act, there shall be established in Anne Arundel County, a district included within the following boundaries, to wit: beginning for the same at the intersection of the west shore of Deep Run with the southern shore of the
