

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Levy Court of Queen Anne's county, be, and they are hereby required, (if in their judgment the interest of the county would be promoted) to levy upon the assessable property of said county, four hundred dollars to be applied under the direction of the trustees of the poor of said county, to the culture of the Mulberry trees, and growing of Silk, at the Alms House.

CHAP. 232.
Levy on $500 and
thorised 1

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the trustees of the poor, to introduce as soon as practicable, the raising of silk, into said institution, for which purpose they are authorised to purchase mulberry trees, a reel, and such other implements as may be necessary to carry into complete effect the intentions of this act, also to purchase such books, to take such papers as may be necessary for giving instruction to the keeper, and those under him in growing the Mulberry tree, and raising and reeling the silk.

Trustees instructed

CHAPTER 232.

An act for the benefit of the gate or door-keepers, within the bar of the Court House, in Frederick and Washington Counties.

Passed Mar. 23, 1839.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the keepers of the gates or doors, within the bar of the Court House, in Frederick and Washington counties, be, and they are hereby respectively entitled to the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, per day, for their services as keepers of said gates, or doors, and that upon a certificate, from the Clerk of said county, of the number of days that each of them attended, the collector of taxes for said county, is hereby ordered and directed to pay over upon presentation of such certificate or certificates, the amount thereof, in the same manner that the jurors of said county are now paid.

$1 50 per day