Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners for St. Mary's county, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to adopt such mode to carry into effect the intention of this act, as they in their judgment may deem most advantageous to the interest of the people of said county.

CHAPTER 259.

Passed Mar. 26, 1839. A supplement to an act entitled an act to provide for the public instruction of youth, so far as the same relates to Frederick county, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter two hundred and thirty.

Trustees named

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, Adam Lorentz, Samuel Yast and Peter Coblentz, trustees in the Primary School district, number ten, in Frederick county, and their successors forever, are authorised to rent, build, or buy a suitable school house at any place within the bounds of the corporation of Middletown, for the use of the Primary School, and upon presentation of a certificate to the inspectors, or to any person or persons authorised to pay the school fund to the trustees, that a suitable house has been provided for the purpose of keeping a Primary School, the trustees shall be entitled to receive the money due to said district number ten, in the same manner as if the school house had been bought or built.

Authorised to rent, build or buy

On certificate

Entitled to draft for money

If withheld, payment directed

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any money has been withheld from the trustees, on account of not producing a satisfactory title to the house in which the Primary School has been kept, that said money, or monies, be forthwith paid to the trustees.
