

to appoint professors, teachers, and assistants, for CHAP. 240. instructing the students of said academy, in such sciences and branches of education, as they shall think proper to be taught therein, and to make ordinances Make ordinances and regulations for the good government of the said academy, and the instruction of the youths, as aforesaid, and to appoint such number of their own body, not less than three, as they may think proper, to be a committee for transacting all business of the said academy, and also by the said regulations, to delegate to the professors and teachers, such powers and authorities as they shall think expedient for the government and discipline of the said academy, and the execution of the regulations thereof, and to make such regulations for the direction and examinations of the academy, and the students and scholars therein, as shall best promote the important objects of the institution; provided always, that the said ordinances and regula- Provide tions be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this State.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, and Semi-annual meetings their successors, or a majority of them, shall meet at least twice in every year, in stated semi-annual meetings, to be appointed by their said ordinances, and at such other times, as by their said ordinances, or by their own adjournments, they may direct, and when so assembled they shall have power, from time to time, to appoint a president, treasurer, and secretary, to Appoint officers make contracts with the professors, or teachers, rela- Make contracts tive to the instruction of the pupils to be placed under their care, and for the payment of their salaries; to examine the progress of the students in their learning, Examine progress to hear and determine on all complaints and appeals, and upon all matters touching the discipline and government of the said academy and the execution of their ordinances, and generally to manage the estate and concerns of the said academy, in such manner as they may deem best for the advantage of the institution.