

CHAP. 251.

CHAPTER 250.

Passed Mar. 27, 1839, An act for the relief of William W. Handley of Dorchester County.

Release

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William W. Handley, of Dorchester county, be, and he is hereby released from the payment of the fine imposed in the cause of the State of Maryland against William W. Handley; provided nevertheless, that the said William W. Handley shall pay all the fees, due to the witnesses and officers of Dorchester county court, which accrued in the prosecution of said writ.

Proviso

CHAPTER 251.

Passed Mar. 26, 1839, An act for the relief of Sarah Barnett and her children, of Washington County.

Empowered to fulfill agreement

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland That Sarah Barnett, of Washington county, be, and she is hereby fully authorised and empowered, to carry into effect the agreement made and concluded between her, the said Sarah Barnett, of the one part, and John Rodebaugh and William Vonderaw, trustees of Jacob Vonderaw of Franklin county, Pennsylvania, of the other part, by conveying all the right, title, interest and estate, as well of herself as of her children, in and to the lands mentioned and described in the said agreement, to the purchasers named therein, according to the force, form and effect of the covenants of the said Sarah Barnett, in the said agreement contained.

And convey property

Shall account for proceeds

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That Sarah Barnett, shall account for the proceeds of said sale, to the Orphan's Court of Washington county, by whom a distribution shall be made among her children, of the portion thereof, to which they are in right of their father, John Barnett, entitled, and that the distributive portions of the said proceeds, which shall be declared by the said court, in favor of Washington Barnett and John Barnett, infant heirs of the said John Barnett deceased, shall be applied, secured or invested